Fire Rages 11 Hours
Kittanning, Pa., March 2.—Firemen believed they had checked a blaze here today that raged for 11 hours, breaking out anew intermittently until damage estimated between $350,000 and $500,000 was done.

Five store buildings and offices above were destroyed by the flames as firemen from seven nearby towns attempted to bring the conflagration under control.

Ten Stores Destroyed
Peckskill, N. Y., March 2.—A $500,000 fire in the heart of the business district here early today destroyed ten stores and one factory before firemen finally brought the blaze under control at 6 a. m.

The fire started shortly before 4 o'clock this morning. It destroyed the Woolworth department store and offices in the Woolworth building, and razed nine other stores in the same block. A clothing factory also was burned to the ground.

Visit of Daughter Cheers Mrs. Goodhue; Condition Unchanged

Northampton, Mass., March 2.— Mrs. Lemira Goodhue was considerably cheered today because of the arrival and visit of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, who is herself recovering from a recent attack of grippe.

Mrs. Coolidge made two visits to the Dickinson-Coeley hospital following her arrival, and planned to spend most of her time there today.
The condition of the 78-year-old
Mrs. Goodhue has not materially changed for some time. Dr. E. J.
Hayes, her physician, stated she is in no immediate danger. She was feeling slowly because of her advanced years.

Mrs. Goodhue was stricken with an attack of influenza early in the winter and has been convalescing slowly.

OHIO DEMOCRATS WILL GET BLANK PRIMARY BALLOT

Permitted to Write Name Of Choice for Presidential Nominee

Columbus, March 2.—Ohio Democratic voters will be presented with a blank presidential preference primary ballot at the statewide elections on April 24 despite the fact that no candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination qualified for a preference vote in the Buckeye state. This announcement was made today by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

In response to a query from the Summit county election board,
Brown stated that the Ohio election laws require presentation to primary voters of a presidential preference ballot even when no names of presidential candidates are printed on such a ballot.

Brown pointed out that Democrats at the presidential primaries will be permitted to write on the preference ballot their choice for the Democratic nomination, if they desire to do so.

Not only can Ohio Democrats
write in the names of either U. S.
Senator Alton Pomeroy, the Buckeye state's "favorite son" candidate, or Gov. Donohue, but may vote for Gov. Al Smith, U. S. Senator James Reed of Missouri, or any other Democrat, it was stated.

In view of Brown's latest ruling, two ballots will be given Democratic voters at the presidential primaries next month, one the blank preferential ballot and the other containing names of candidates for delegates and alternates to the Democratic National convention. Republican voters will be given a preferential ballot containing the names of Willis Hoover and Attorney Olin
J. Ross, Columbus, and a ballot containing names of candidates for delegates and alternates to the G.
O. P. national convention.

Brown stated that names of candidates will be placed upon the ballots in alphabetical order and will be rotated, as required by state law.

LEWIS HOPES PITTSBURGH ROW MAY END SOON

Washington, March 2.—The United Mine Workers hope that an adjustment may be speedily reached in the row in the Pittsburgh, Pa., hard coal field, John L. Lewis declared today in a telegram to Mayor William H. Gillespie of Pittsburgh.

Four union leaders have recently been slain in that district, Lewis declared that if the local committee and company and district officials fail to end the dispute, it is the function of the joint board of conciliation, not the international union, to find a basis of settlement.

Reveal Real-Life Enactment Of Charles Dickens Novel

Wheaton, Ill., March 2.—A real-life enactment of Charles Dickens' novel, "The Tale of Two Cities," came to light here today when Thomas Novilla, a chivalrous and romantic youth, admitted in his cell in the Wheaton jail that he had substituted for John Riniilli, his friend, so that Riniilli could embark on his honeymoon.

Riniilli, it develops, was arrested several weeks ago for violating the prohibition, law.
His trial was set for the date on which he was scheduled to be married. He went to Novilla, his best friend, with a proposition.

Secret Investigators Of Senate Committee On
New Trail Today

HAYS TESTIMONY DEFENDS SINCLAIR

Returned $85,000 To Help
Hays, Who Suffered
Financial Loss

Washington, March 2.—Secret investigators for the senate public lands committee were following trails today that are expected to throw more light upon the ultimate disposition of the Continental Trading company's $3,000,000 Liberty bond "slush fund."

Some of these bonds, it has been shown, went to ex-Secretary of the Interior Fall, who leased Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair; others to H. M. Blackmer and James O'Neil, mid-western oil men, and finally others to the Republican national committee, to aid it in liquidating its 1920 deficit.

Although Sinclair defied the senate committee when it sought to learn disposition of the Continental bonds, and is now under a jail sentence for contempt because of this defiance, the committee has learned from Will H. Hays, former chairman of the Republican national committee, that the oil magnate put up $200,000 for the committee after he leased the naval oil reserve from Fall.

Defends Sinclair
One hundred thousand dollars in bonds were later returned to Sinclair, making his net contribution $100,000. The first $75,000 in bonds, which were found to be the selfsame Continental bonds, constituted an outright gift. Hays informed the committee a "loan" of $100,000 was later returned to Sinclair, and the remaining $85,000 was made a gift when Sinclair learned that Hays was repaying it out of his own pocket.

"I had suffered financial losses," Hays said, in explaining this $85,000 gift, "of which Mr. Sinclair knew He did not feel that I should bear this burden personally, and he voluntarily returned the $85,000 in securities which I had caused to be delivered to him."

Senator Walsh (D) of Montana, prosecutor of the Teapot Dome investigation, said the committee would not inquire into stories of speculation in the stock of Sinclair's Mammoth Oil company following its lease of Teapot Dome from Fall.
Hays told the committee of his disposition of the bonds secured from Sinclair. He said $25,000 went to former Secretary of War John W.
Weeks; $50,000 to John T. Pratt of
New York; and $60,000 to Fred W.
Upham, the late treasurer of the Republican national committee.
Weeks Pratt and Upham all have died since the senate oil investigation was launched.

ENTRY OF REED IN CALIFORNIA RACE SURPRISE

Missourian To Fight It Out With Smith For 26 Delegates

SEE SHOWDOWN ON SMITH'S STRENGTH

Reed's Announcement Has Caused Surprise In Capital Circles

Washington, March 2.—Senator
James A. Reed's entry into the 26 delegates primary to "fight it out"
with other aspirants for the Democratic presidential nomination was regarded by Democratic leaders in Washington today as an event of outstanding political importance and significance.

It means, they believe, a showdown that will throw a lot of light on the question that buzzes continually in Democratic quarters these days, to wit: "Can Smith be stopped?"

Four years ago, California's 23 delegates were for Wm. G. McAdoo.
For 103 weary ballots they went down the line of McAdoo without wavering or faltering. McAdoo announced his withdrawal from the 1928 race a year ago, and since that time the Smith people have claimed California's 26 delegates in the 26 convention for their own. The New York governor has many friends in the state and they have been laboring industriously in his behalf.

Comes As Surprise
Reed's announcement that his hat is in the California ring, and that a slate of Reed delegates will be presented in every district in the primary of May 1 now alters the situation very materially. Where the Smith people had expected an easy conquest, or no contest at all, it now becomes evident that there is to be a real battle for 26 delegates unless the Smith managers evade the issue.

Senator Reed's announcement of his militant candidacy in California caused considerable surprise among his followers here. When the Missourian left the capital on his speaking tour through the west it was understood by his friends that he was seeking only to build himself up as a possible compromise candidate—when and if the Houston convention found it impossible to nominate Smith.

His going in to the primary in the Golden state, however, indicates there has been a change in his pre-conception strategy. By this action, the Missourian has shown that he not only is in quest of Democratic harmony, but he is militantly after delegates wherever they can be obtained, Smith's or anyone else's.

REARDON NAMED TO POLICE POST

Until Heckert's Leave
Has Expired

William D. Reardon was appointed a policeman by Safety Director gin his duties at once.

amination, will be a special policeman until Patrolman Paul Heckert's leave of absence expires this coming summer. He then will be named to a regular post.

Heckert, who is in the government secret service, obtained a leave of absence for six months from his duties here.

Mayor Phil Hiddleston probably will assign Patrolman Ralph Stoffer to traffic duty soon, putting Reardon on general duty.

Wife Returns Home While Sheriff Is Searching For Her

Bucyrus, March 2.—Mrs. Lura Ulmer, wife of Sheriff Harvey D. Ulmer, who, with her two and one-half year old son, Harvey Jr., has been missing since midnight last Saturday, has returned with the boy.
For almost a week the authorities have been engaged in a widespread husband had participated in the search.

Mrs. Ulmer returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Avery Ackman.
She explained that when she left home she went to Mansfield and then to Toledo where she had a position in a private home.

WET-DRY FIGHT IS WAGED OVER NEW PENALTIES

Wets Ridicule Joker In Stalker Bill Raising Maximum Penalty

Washington, March 2.—Another
"wet and dry" fight in congress was breaking today over the Stalker bill, raising the maximum penalty for a first violation of the Volstead act, excepting only possession of liquor, to five years imprisonment or a fine of $10,000.

Backed by the department of justice, dry leaders declared they would put the amendment through in the present session.

At the same time the wets both ridiculed the measure for an alleged "joker" in it and declared that it put a prohibition law violator and bank robber on the same basis.

Placed on the calendar by favorable action of the house judiciary committee, the bill is scheduled to be called up for a vote in the near future.

Rep. Laguardia (D), of New York, a "wet" member of the committee, asserted that the amendment would be hailed with delight by the bootleggers.

"The bill does raise the maximum sentence but it also removes the present provisions of the law which make a jail sentence mandatory for a second violation of the law," he said.

"The department of justice wants the amendment so that liquor cases won't have to be tried under the conspiracy statutes. They are falling into a trap."

"Under this amendment, the big violation will pay a fine or let a truck driver serve a sentence in jail.
The big bootlegger, who sits behind a roll-top desk, can only be reached through trial for conspiracy."

Four Children Born On February 29

Four children were born here
Feb. 29.
Related report today of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Martinelli, Columbia, at Wednesday, brings the total for the day to four, instead of three.

The other three children born on this extra day of the year were a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Capel, a son of Mr.
and Mrs. L. C. Nuyts, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Mitchell.

POLICE ARREST 22 IN FEBRUARY

Police here made 22 arrests, answered 70 calls and complaints, and conducted three searches for liquor during February, it is shown by the monthly report of Chief T. W.
Thompson to Safety Director Rex Ruggie.

Parking violations led with seven arrests. There were three each for intoxication, disorderly conduct, reckless driving and assault, two for possession of liquor, and one for failing to file insurance policy for taxi.

PARISH HOUSE IS RAZED FOR NEW STRUCTURE

Razing of the parish house of the Emmanuel Lutheran church was completed today. Supt. Roy Foust of the Boldt Construction company announced.

The big building was torn down to make way for the new church outside the specific violation set forth in the affidavit for warrant to arrest, which, it appears, this court cannot take into account in reaching this decision.

"It appears to this court that defendant, Barber, has redress elsewhere entirely aside from this action" is another portion of the opinion.

The mayor states that no policy was filed, whether or not there was intent to do so, and that Barber is guilty because of this. The accident happened to light this failure, and violation of the ordinance.

PLANS DEPEND ON MONEY BILL BEFORE HOUSE

Mail Warehouse Would be Constructed At Rear
Of Building

LARGER PARKING SPACE INCLUDED

One Rural Route Will Be Eliminated, Others
Re-Arranged

Plans for a $40,000 addition to the Salem postoffice building were discussed today.

The plans have been approved by the postoffice department, and are now before the appropriation committee of the lower house of congress. If the committee includes an appropriation for the addition in the general postoffice funds bill, the addition is assured.

Construction of the addition,
which will be built on the rear of the present building, will mean much more space for the handling of mail. The size of the addition is not given, but it will be of considerable size. The exact cost is not given, but it is estimated at $40,000.

Under the plans, as drawn by a government engineer and approved by Postmaster F. J. Eckstein, the present rear entrance and vestibule will be eliminated. It will be walled up and two big entrances, one to each side of the present vestibule, will be opened.

These big doors will lead into a general mail warehouse and vestibule. The mail messenger will deposit mail from trains in this part of the building, and receive mail for trains. More room will also be provided for other work in the office.

Plans include the grading and paving of the rear lawn which now extends back to Suggartree alley, and to the east and west lines of the government property.

This large amount of parking space has been almost an emergency need, due to the crush of traffic in the small parking space now provided. In the mornings the rural carriers

AVIATION TODAY

It is difficult these days to get away from aviation in the news. Aviation is the outstanding activity everywhere. But, like all pioneering events, the day's news of aviation is filled with information of tragedies which have overtaken men concerned with its progress.

While the huge lighter-than-air ship, Los Angeles, was winging its way to Panama in an epochal non-stop flight over the sea, word came of the loss of Commander Ellyson, the navy's first flyer, and two companions; of the death of a pilot and injury of two others near Dona, N. M.; of the belief that a professional pilot and a passenger are lost in the Atlantic, and no further information concerning the fate of Harry Brooks.

Thus are men's lives the toll where progress is achieved. It always has been so. It always will be so.

The loss of life attributable to the airplane brings shudders to the weak-kneed who would halt all experiments in aviation. But to the strong-hearted it is added incentive to conquer the air—and the air certainly will be conquered.

The flight of the Los Angeles 2,265 miles to Panama at an average speed in excess of 50 miles an hour—sometimes as great as 80 nautical miles an hour—is noteworthy as a distinct forward step in aviation by heavier-than-air craft. The Los Angeles, one recalls, flew over the Atlantic as the ZR-3. In other experimental trips of magnificent distances the Los Angeles has behaved admirably.

One dislikes the constantly growing record of dead and injured in the promotion of aviation, but nothing worth while ever was accomplished in the history of the world without sacrifice of life. And men always have braved death to complete the task to which they assigned themselves.

It usually is the little thing in life which results in bigger things. Now it is discovered that Pilot Brooks and his "Tliver" plane were lost because a tiny wooden plug had been inserted in the vent hole in one of the gasoline tanks, preventing escape of the fumes, creating a vacuum that shut the fuel off from the motor and ultimately resulted in the collapse of the tank, sending the machine nose-first into the sea.

Perhaps Brooks was responsible for the mishap. Perhaps some one else put that plug in the vent hole. But whoever was responsible, we may rest assured that it will never again occur. A man's life was the cost of placing that bit of wood in the gas vent—but Harry Brooks' death will be the means, no doubt, of saving the lives of many others.

The flight of the Los Angeles should convince the skeptical that here is a mode of transport quite worth while. Among other accomplishments of the Los Angeles, besides its flight across the Atlantic, are the following:

Carried mail to Bermuda in February, 1925; took photographs on rum row in the North Atlantic in April, 1925; made a second trip to Bermuda with mail in 1925; flew Puerto Rico in May, 1925; flew to Cleveland in 1925; flew to Detroit and back to its base in 1926; flew to Pensacola, Fla., in 1927; searched North Atlantic for missing Grayson plane in 1927; landed on deck of aircraft carrier Saratoga in 1928.

SUBJECT FOR STUDY

A single day's news brings reports of the organization of a woolen industry to control production in that industry and of the creation of coal-producing corporations to serve the same purpose there. Accompanying these announcements are statements that the woolen and worsted industries have suffered enormous losses in the past four years and that the bituminous coal industry has passed through the worst seven years in its entire history. Coming so soon after unfavorable financial reports from other important industries—steel, oil and motors—these efforts to control production combined with rising figures of unemployment indicate that the general condition of business is not entirely a happy one.

Unlike most recessions in activity and in profits the reason for the reaction which began in the second half of 1927 is clear to no one. There is a great deal of speculation as to causes. It was easy to tie up the depression of 1907 with banking phenomena of the year before and the depression of 1920 and 1921 with maladjustments created by war production; but there is no single influence in the business events of the past year or two that explains the business and industrial movement through which we are now passing. The secretary of commerce has just announced plans for a careful investigation under the direction of Prof. W. C. Mitchell of Columbia, and E. P. Gay of Harvard, of the factors responsible for our national well being. A more profitable subject for their consideration might be the causes at the foundation of the recent and prevailing trend in business and industry. We know in a general way that our national well being is a product of rich natural resources and a fairly intelligent use of them. The answer to the other question is almost a blank.

CATHEDRAL BUILDER

"What is your chief interest at the present time?" an interviewer asked Gen. Pershing during his recent visit to Boston. The general replied: "Building monuments in France to the memory of the service of American soldiers in the war and assisting to build this great cathedral to the glory of Him to Whom we owe all our greatness."

These are impressive words from America's war leader. They bring home a fact not fully revealed by the mere formal announcement, made some time ago, that Gen. Pershing had accepted the chairmanship of the national committee now laboring for the construction of the Washington Episcopal church plans to build in the nation's capital city. Many men have taken comparable chairmanships under terms which meant no more than a general endorsement of the work in hand, and a readiness to lend their names to its support. Personal devotion has not necessarily been implied. But now Gen. Pershing, a man of force and truth beyond all question, declares that the building of this cathedral is one of the two absorbing interests of his life.

The country will mark well this light on the character of this resolute war leader, noting his interest all the more attentively because the great mass of Americans had, in the past, known little of it. One may run through 600 newspapers and magazine articles on the life of Gen. Pershing—his boyhood in Missouri, his battles with the Indians, his campaign in the Philippines, his great leadership of the American forces in France—and find not one word from the correspondents and scribbles of the religious convictions of Gen. Pershing. But one will find all those things—integrity, faith, unflinching resolution, strength in the face of devastating personal sorrow—that are the truest results of religion. How much the nation's war leader feels indebted to the Giver of these higher values. Americans are elated of the privilege to know and understand. —Boston Transcript.

ILLS ARE WARDED OFF BY ROUGHAGE IN FOOD

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

If you were asked what is the most common of human ailments what would you answer?

The most frequently met of all complaints is that simple physical defect—constipation. No other disability is responsible for so many different symptoms.

Headache, sore throat, pain in the stomach, bloating, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness—these are some of the many results of constipation. Loss of energy, unwillingness to do mental or physical labor—these, too, are the effects of constipation.

I am a reverent man, and adore the Supreme Architect, but there is no doubt in my mind that man has 10 or 15 feet too much intestine. It was all right when we lived in a savage state and ate the rough foods of field and forest. But with the advent of modern cooking, denatured foods and softness of life, everything has changed.

If the passageway between the stomach and exit were a good deal more direct, there would be less trouble. The waste would be less likely to dam up within us a festering, fermenting mass of disease-producing material. The way we are made, plus the foods of civilized living produce a digestive condition which makes for constipation.

The natural result of our mode of living and of eating of the foods we must take, is sluggishness of bowel action. It requires constant thoughtfulness and care to prevent it. It is safe to assume that without this thoughtfulness and care in the choice of foods, constipation is sure to be present.

I am hopeful that by changing away at the public there will be aroused ultimately an appreciation of the importance of overcoming or preventing constipation. It is not necessary to have it, of course, but you will have it unless you take heed of a few facts. It is almost as inevitable as the lives we lead. There is no doubt if our lives were but more simple, our food plainer, our habits more regular, the intestinal tract would act better. But that big "if" is in the way.

Roughage is essential to bowel action. There must be fibre and substance, or there is nothing for the walls of the intestines to get hold of to squeeze the waste material forward. That is why bran, cabbage, lettuce, celery, spinach and fibrous foods are recommended. Fruit juices and vegetables, especially fresh vegetables, are particularly important.

A tablespoonful of mineral oil daily—swallowed when the stomach is empty, three hours after eating at night, or a full half hour before breakfast will help to overcome the effects of constipation. This is a temporary expedient and, if the diet is regular as it should be, it will not be necessary to resort to petroleum oil every day. It can be taken for an indefinite period, but if you live as you should and eat as you should it will not be necessary to depend on any medicine, even so simple and harmless a thing as petroleum oil.

THE SPRING-HOLZWARTH COMPANY

13 EMPLOYEES OF BANK INDICTED FOR SHORTAGES

Charge Cashier and His Assistant Embezzled Over $273,000

Findlay, March 2.—Thirty-five indictments against 13 employees, associates and former associates of the Arcadia Bank and Savings company, were returned by the Hancock grand jury here today as a result of the failure of the bank last year when a shortage of nearly $300,000 was reported by state bank examiners.

Of the 13 employees 12 were returned against Cashier Fred Conway and Assistant Cashier Clyde Wheland, charging them jointly with embezzling $273,000. The board of directors with Isaiah Myers, president and Conway and Clyde Wheland were indicted for the embezzlement and misapplication of $273,000 and for the misapplication of $30,000 of funds of the Arcadia Elevator company.

Ten indictments were returned against Conway charging the forgery of 10 notes to the amount of $30,000. One general indictment was returned against Clyde Wheland charging the false entry of $71,000 on the commercial ledger and $52,000 on the savings ledger. Ten specific indictments were returned against Clyde Wheland for each specific entry charged. Isaiah Myers, E. B. Bish, former director and Conway were indicted for making three false entries to state bank examiners and five similar indictments were returned against Myers, J. H. Wheland and H. B. McCracken, as directors.

The directors named in the indictments are: E. B. Bish, former director, G. W. Dick, A. L. Ewing, Arthur Ebersole, J. H. Wheland, H. V. McCracken, Norman Huffman and G. M. Hartman.

Clyde Wheland has been at liberty under $5,000 bond since the bank was closed, while Conway has been held in jail in default of bond.

The bank was closed Nov. 3 upon information of Examiner W. J. Skehan, who reported irregularities in the conduct of the bank.

It was later reported that Toledo grain speculators were being questioned in connection with charges that Conway had lost almost $200,000 of depositors' money in getting rich quick deals.

SANDINO FORCE MAKES ESCAPE

Bandits Flee To Jungles And Marines Fail To Slight Them

Managua, Nicaragua, March 2.—Gen. Augusto Sandino's Rebel force that ambushed a detachment of United States marines on the Yali-Cordoba trail on Monday, killing five and wounding nine, has escaped into the jungle and the pursuing marines have so far been unable to establish a contact with them, according to word received today from the jungle.

The five dead Americans have been buried near where they fell. Wounded graves mark the spot.

Of the wounded men only Private L. C. Lewis of Nixon, Texas, is in serious condition. The wounded were brought here from Cordoba where they were taken after the fight.

American planes are circling over the jungle and hills near the scene of the attack attempting to get some trace of the Rebels.

Both President Diaz and Gen. Moncada, Liberal nominee for president, have expressed their profound sorrow and sympathy to American Minister Eberhardt for the latest American losses.

Although bitter political enemies, both Diaz and Moncada are rendering every assistance to the American forces in trying to run down Sandino.

BIG THREE SIGN WITH ATHLETICS

Mack Will Have Ty Cobb, Speaker and Simmons In Outfield

Ft. Myers, Fla., March 2.—Cobb, Speaker and Simmons!

That's the powerful "Big Three" of American League baseball that Connie Mack will send to the Athletics' outfield this season in a desperate attempt to wrest the league championship from the New York Yankees.

The "Big Three" was completed last night when Connie Mack announced Ty Cobb's willingness to play again.

"I'm mighty glad that I was able to win Cobb over for he means much to us," said Mack. "He is an inspiration to the whole team and helpful to every player. In Simmons, Speaker and Cobb we will have an outfield next season that will electrify the nation."

In 1927 Simmons batted .392, Cobb .357 and Speaker .327, so the new Athletics' outfield as a unit hit .358 as late as last season.

Mack declared he would switch Simmons to left field and post Speaker in center where in fielding he has never been equalled by any other for decades. Cobb will cover right.

SENTENCE SEVEN FOR CONSPIRACY

Columbus, March 2.—Six of the seven men who were charged with conspiracy to violate a federal injunction, were today sentenced to serve 30 days each in the Licking county jail. The seventh, because of his youth, was given only five days in the same jail.

The charges against the men were an outgrowth of a riot at the Dorothy mine at Glen Robbins, Jefferson county, last Monday night.

The mine is protected by federal injunction and the men violated the injunction, it was charged, by staging a disturbance at the mine. Several persons were injured and slight property damage done during the riot Monday night.

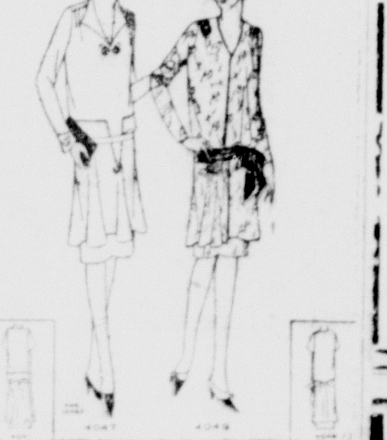

The men sentenced to 30 days imprisonment were: Alex Felzan, Andy Lidark, Steve Vohancik, John Olenka, Louis Mozi and Joe Kurie. John Kurie, 18, was the one given a five-day sentence.

All of the men were present in the courtroom.

CHIC AND ELEGANT

In the inimitable chic of Paris are these frocks designed, the first model in crepe satin featuring a circular tunic cut away in V-shaped outline in front, to give the flared silhouette. There are tucks at the shoulders where the back comes over to join the fronts in yoke effect, and a touch of embroidery below the V-shaped neck. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 39-inch material.

A frock may have only half a bolero and yet be fully in fashion, as the next model illustrates. The applied left-front gives the unusual bolero effect and is striking in its novelty. The skirt is shirred at one side, and there is a soft belt of ribbon tied in a large bow to conceal the jointure between skirt and blouse. Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards 39-inch material.

First Model: Pictorial Review Printed Pattern No. 4047. Sizes 34 to 44 bust, 35 chest, Transfer No. 13053, blue or yellow, 25 cents.

LOGAN GAS CO. MOVE ATTACKED

Counsel for Thirty Ohio Cities Opposes New Rate Application

Columbus, March 2.—Claiming that the Logan Gas company was endeavoring to circumvent the judgment of the Ohio supreme court, and the arguing that provisions of Ohio Statutes prohibited the state utilities commission from giving consideration to the company's latest request, counsel for the various protesting cities, villages and rural districts, at a public hearing this afternoon, asked the commission to dismiss the company's application, filed February 17, last, for permission to put into effect immediately a temporary increased rate schedule.

This proposed rate schedule, if authorized, would be effective in Marion, Bucyrus, Ashland, Fremont, Crestline and about 30 other protesting communities, pending termination of the investigation the commission is conducting relative to protests against increased rate schedules filed by the Logan Gas company about two years ago.

The proposed temporary schedule would provide for the following rates: $1 for the first 500 cubic feet or less, per month, without discount; 63 cents per 1,000 cubic feet for all over 500 cubic feet, subject to a discount of 3 cents per each 1,000 cubic feet, if bills are paid within 10 days.

Argument opposing the company's latest application was presented by Assistant Attorney General Grant E. Mosser, as special counsel for the city of Marion and by the city solicitors of Ashland, Bucyrus, Crestline, Athens and Lorain on behalf of all the protesting communities.

FEBRUARY SNOW BELOW NORMAL

But Temperature And Rainfall Were Above Normal For Month

Farmers in Columbiana county fear for a small wheat crop this year because of weather conditions. Lawrence H. Copeland of Millport, cooperative weather observer for this district, declared today.

This has been explained by the fact there has been little protection offered wheat plants by snow, and additional damage is reported to the wheat fields during the last month.

February had a temperature and rainfall above normal, and the snow fall was below normal during the last month. Only once last month was zero registered, and with chilly winds prevailing almost throughout the month.

The mean maximum temperature for February in Columbiana county was 37.2 degrees and the mean minimum was 21 and the mean 29.1.

February 8 was the warmest day with 55 degrees, being registered and the coldest was Feb. 21 when zero was noted.

Precipitation in February totaled 3.72 inches and the heaviest rainfall was on Feb. 5 when .78 inches fell. The snowfall during February totaled three inches, whereas February last year 11.5 inches of snow fell during February.

There were only four clear days last month, 13 being partly cloudy and nine fully cloudy days.

The heaviest snow fall during the last 36 years in this county during February was in 1914 when 13.6 inches fell.

For that reason it behooves us modern females to look to the care of our wheat blonde or raven black hair — whichever the case may be. Smart, alluring, subtly distinguished coiffures by specialists in beauty culture.

Change Rural Routes. Other changes at the postoffice include the re-arrangement of the rural routes, effective April 1. There are now six routes, in addition to the Star route, and one of the regular routes will be eliminated.

By cutting off one numbered route, patrons served will be added to the other routes and carriers will receive increased pay for the extra work. The passing of the horse and general use of the auto as a means of rural delivery has caused the change.

Charles Jones, who recently reached the retirement age, but has been working on an extension of time, has resigned as a rural carrier. The balance of the rural staff will be assigned to the five routes next month.

Changes in numbers of several of the routes also has been made. No. 1 route will be cut the Damascus rd., and the numbers will then be given routes in rotation of the circle of territory served. At the present No. 2 route is next to No. 4 on this circle, instead of next to 3.

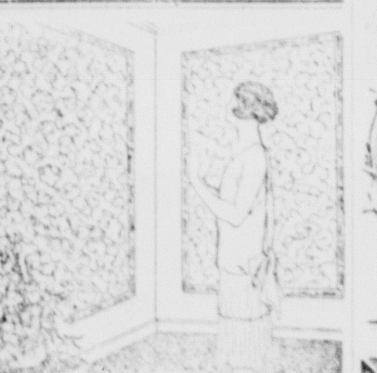

The Salem postoffice is one of the busiest in this part of the state, and business is constantly on the increase.

Markets

PRICES IRREGULAR

New York, March 2.—Stock prices were irregularly lower at the opening of the market today. Steel stocks declined. U. S. Steel selling down 1/8 to 138 1/2. American Steel Foundry gained 1/4 to 57 1/2 and Crucible 1/4 to 66 1/2.

General Motors was unchanged at 137 1/2 and others in that group were fractionally higher and lower. Hudson 1/4 to 85 1/2, while Packard rose 1/4 to 80 1/2. International Nickel declined 1/4 to 82 1/2, and Radio Corporation dropped 1/4 to 94 1/2.

Wall Street looked confidently for a $500,000,000 decrease in the volume of brokers' loans, instead of the $600,000,000 reported after the close of Thursday's market by the reserve board. For that reason the demand for stocks was considerably smaller than expected, and the market made little or no progress in the first period of trading. Buying of the motors and oils was in good volume but only in exceptional cases did prices reach a higher level.

Satisfaction was expressed in the financial district over the reported improvement in the oil and textile industries, and the improved outlook for the leading companies therein. The head of the American Woolen company emphasized the favorable situation in the textile trade, and the marketing of oil has already brought more and cheer to the holders of oil stocks.

Cash money was unchanged at 4 1/2 per cent, and there was no lack of funds for "speculative" purposes. Commodities markets were fairly steady, cotton failing to respond to the better tone of the Liverpool market. Crude rubber was in good supply at the lower price ranges, and the coffee and sugar markets were dull and featureless.

Professionals continued to "hammer" the speculative shares which easily gave ground in yesterday's irregular session. Collins and Alkanen dropped 4 points to the year's low price of 6 1/2. General Railway Signal at 95 was down 10 points from Thursday's high. Continental Baking A. withstood further pounding, and Gold Dust was freely offered around 91.

General Motors and Studebaker led a mild rally in the motors, while U. S. Steel and most of the independent steels were under selling pressure and declined fractionally in irregular trading.

LINDY FLIES TO N. YORK TODAY; MISSION SECRET

Flier Ignores Questions And Joins Backers Of Atlantic Flight

By the March 2—California claims his presence," said Mrs. Lindbergh, L. Lindbergh during a brief address to the house of representatives today in a news conference. Lindbergh was not at her side. At that time the "The Eagle" with three flying companions, was being taken on Curtiss field, Long Island at the conclusion of the first leg of a "mystery flight." Lindbergh was expected to say he wanted to give the life of just one child was given for a while.

Mrs. Lindbergh was given a tremendous ovation by the legislators and the crowded galleries.

Accompanied by Miss Cornelia Adair, of Richmond, Va., president of the National Education association, Lindbergh in her was escorted to the house chamber by Gov. Alvan T. Fuller, who halted a meeting of his executive council, considering the casting of registrar of motor vehicles, Frank A. Goodwin.

Too Modest To Speak
The two nationally prominent women were escorted to the rostrum of the house by the women members of the legislature.

Speaker John C. Hull introducing Mrs. Adair said that education was the most important work of the nation and state.

The head of the N. E. A. in response thanked Boston and Massachusetts for their hospitality, including southern weather prevailing during the convention of education.

Speaker Hull lauded Mrs. Lindbergh as the Detroit school teacher whose son, the "flying ambassador of good will" had thrilled the hearts of the inhabitants of the civilized world. Speaker Hull said that, like her son, Mrs. Lindbergh was modest and asked to be excused from speaking.

Curtiss Field, N. Y., March 2—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and three business associates landed here shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, after having flown from Boston in a Ryan biplane.

Lindbergh's arrival was a surprise as the plane had set out from Boston at 7:50 a. m. with the colonel's destination a secret to newspapermen. He had refused to talk with reporters before the take-off.

As Lindbergh stepped from the cabin of his plane after landing, he appeared annoyed at the attempts of newspapermen to talk with him. He frowned, and ignoring questions, strode to a waiting automobile and was driven away.

Others with Lindbergh's principal backers for his trans-Atlantic flight, and R. F. Mahoney, who built the Spirit of St. Louis, the Lindbergh plane, were waiting for the colonel when he arrived here.

In the plane with Lindbergh on the flight from Boston were Major John Roberter, leader of an aviation company, H. M. Bixby, president of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, and U. S. Hill, of Albany, N. Y.

Major Thomas G. Lanphier, commander of the First Pursuit Group of the U. S. Army air corps at Selfridge Field, Mich., joined Lindbergh's party as the automobile left the field here. Major Lanphier is making the "fueled motor" the invention of Lester J. Mendershot, of Pittsburgh.

Speculation as to Lindbergh's mission in New York absorbed the interest of commercial pilots here. The presence of the St. Louis merchants and Mahoney tended to strengthen the report that the visit has to do with the extension of national commercial air routes.

COMING STARS of the MOVIES

Barbara Kent

Her name is Barbara Kent, and she didn't change it for pictures. She bears the distinction of being one of the few beauty contest winners to make good in Hollywood. She's been chosen one of the 1937 Wampas Baby Stars, and she's a Canadian.

And of course Hollywood was the next stop after winning that contest.

She's just a mite over five feet high and weighs 105 pounds. She's one of the few Hollywood girls with unbobbed tresses. Maybe because her hair is red. She's being featured as ingenue lead in several important productions this year.

Parrot Seized With Stage Fright While Before Microphone

London, March 2—A new departure in radio was recently attempted by the British Broadcasting company with none too successful results when a trained parrot was delegated to address the world at large through a microphone.

Equipped with an extra ordinarily large vocabulary, the parrot was placed upon a stand before the microphone and bidden by his master to begin his speech.

The bird was overtake by something akin to stage fright, and while to emit only sounds which listeners-in afterwards described as very close to static.

The parrot is being kept in the studio in the hope he will become thoroughly acclimated, and the experiment will be tried again in the near future.

METER READING AIDS DRY AGENT

Legality of This Means Of Getting Evidence Involved In Case

Cleveland, March 2—The legality of using a meter reader as an aid in gaining entrance to a home without a search warrant, was to be decided today by a jury in federal court in connection with the case of Frank Brande, who is on trial for violation of the liquor law.

The case was given to the jury here last night.

A. P. Foster, prosecution agent, testified he gained entrance to the Brande home here after Gas Inspector C. M. Scott told the occupants that he had come to read the meter. Scott told the court he had no knowledge of the nature of the mission.

Defense attorneys made a motion to have the case dismissed because "evidence was illegally obtained," but Federal Judge Paul Jones ruled against them.

A recent decision in an eastern court declared it illegal for meter readers to act as tipsters to prohibition agents, it was brought out at the trial.

DRY VIOLATION SENTENCE MAY BE EXTENDED

Washington, March 2—The Stalks bill, raising the maximum sentence for the first violation of the Volstead act from one year in jail and a $1,000 fine to five years imprisonment or a $10,000 fine, was approved by the house judiciary committee.

The drastic penalties would apply to transportation, selling and making illicit liquor, but not to possession.

The bill also would eliminate provisions of the present law making a first offense of at least 30 days mandatory for a second violation.

Can He Cross Atlantic in One Day With "Spring Power" Ship?

LOUIS SHER AND HIS SPEED INVENTION
(International News)

ACROSS THE Atlantic in one day! That sounds like the wildest of dreams, but in this age of scientific achievement nothing is impossible. The things that are scoffed at today become matter of fact realities tomorrow.

Louis Sher of Philadelphia has completed the construction of a "spring power" ship which, he claims, will plough through the water at the rate of 100 miles an hour, even under the severest weather conditions.

The principal feature of his device is a method of propulsion by means of springs, brought under tension either through expansion or compression and released to oscillate a series of pedals mounted on an axle.

The paddles dip in the water, one following the other in quick succession as the springs are released, driving the boat forward.

If Sher's right in his theory, the world will be brought nearer together than ever before. Just think of leaving New York one day and arriving in London or Cherbourg the next!

ARMS EMBARGO OBSTACLE SEEN

Three Powerful Nations May Refuse To Join New Convention

Peking, March 2.—Despite belief in diplomatic circles that an international effort may be made to renew and tighten the 1919 arms embargo convention, it was admitted today that serious obstacles exist.

Three of the most powerful of the signatories have little sympathy with the agreement and may refuse to join a new convention. They are Japan, France and Italy.

Japan is willing to join a new pact if all nations sign it and pledge themselves to make it effective, but such a development seems highly unlikely.

"Enforcement of such an agreement is the exact letter can only be attained when all the countries in the world join in it and strictly observe the prohibition of arms shipments to China but this cannot be effected," said Dr. Yoshizawa, Japanese minister to Peking.

"Abolition of the 1919 agreement will not improve the situation by any means. On the contrary, civil war in China will be more ferociously carried on. Intelligent Chinese hope the old agreement will be vigorously enforced as they have expressed themselves to me on various occasions."

Some Class to Him!

Take a look at the only man in England who's allowed to wear his hat in the presence of royalty. He is the Hon. Cecil Forrester of the Royal House Guards. The privilege came down to him from 1850, when Henry VIII granted the right to an ancestor because he suffered from "certain diseases in his head."

GAS Of 206.9
Miles Per Hour Using ETHYL
Gasoline

New speed records were written in the International Speed Trials at Ormond-Daytona Beach, Florida. Builders of cars entered in the trials felt certain they would be able to wrest from Major Segrave, the Britisher, the world record for fast driving. Major Segrave in his "Sunbeam" did 203.79 miles per hour on the Florida course last year.

Ormond-Daytona Beach is the only place in the world where such speed efforts are possible. It is 27 miles long, and 500 feet wide at low tide. The surface is like a billiard table. Many automobile engineering problems of great importance are tested in speed trials, such as reduction of wind resistance, overcoming vibration, tire strength, steering mechanism design, valve action and general functioning of motors and miscellaneous accessories.

Smart New Ways of Wearing the Scarf

Modern Matches—

are made in Heaven, perhaps, but at the scarf counter, as well. If you have a silk scarf and belt to match, you can be assured you are smart.

Monk-ish Maidens—

With no reference to temperament, merely to the appearance of the scarfs do we refer. Knotted in back and worn cowl-fashion, a large silk square falls into soft folds.

Pre-War Stock—

Neckwear tied in the manner of the pre-Revolutionary War. With a tailored suit or new spring topcoat this mode will prove popular.

The Separate Scarf—

is an extremely smart accessory this season for every hour of the day. Winding a half square about her head, she assumes a gay effect for sports. Silk half-squares are inexpensive.

A Knot of Silk—

softly tied at the throat. Fashion informs us that scarf tied thus, with the knot close to the neck eliminates the appearance of too many lines—so disastrous to chic. The new Reversible Scarf is clever tied in this way.

You may obtain any of the above scarfs at the Neckwear Counter.

MULLINSHALTS COLUMBIANA BY A SINGLE POINT

Salem Is Outplayed More Than Half of Game By Boosters' Five

STUDEBAKERS WIN FROM WELLSVILLE

Roughness Marked Main Game; Visitors Had Best Teamwork

Outplayed more than half of the game, Mullins' team pulled out of the fire by a last quarter spurt and nipped the Columbiana Boosters in the first of the inter-city series at the high school gym Thursday night, 35 to 34.

The Studobakers topped the dope over the fence and defeated the Wellsville Elks, 58 to 55, in the preliminary. It was a county league tussle.

The main game, was about the worst of the season as far as real playing goes, and only grew interesting in the closing minutes when Salem erased Columbiana's lead and played a "freezing" game for nearly a minute to retain the margin of victory.

Columbiana sped to a long early lead of 12 to 5 in the first quarter but Mullins came up somewhat in the second stanza, making the score 17 to 11 at half time. The Boosters had plainly outplayed Salem in every department of the game the first half, but neither side put up much high class basketball.

Both teams played a strong offensive game in the third quarter, but Columbiana increased the lead a point, holding a 28 to 21 advantage when the period ended.

Salem tore into the final quarter, making seven consecutive goals in all, the final goal coming two minutes from the end of the game. Columbiana had five chances to make a basket and Mullins two in those final minutes, but both sides missed.

The game ended with the referee trying to pair up two players for a jump shot. Columbiana players claimed he held the ball too long, and that they might have had a chance to make a point. Previous to this Boots Hawkins, Columbiana center, missed a chance to tie the score when he got a free throw after fouled by Vogel. But Boots missed.

The game was full of unnecessary roughness, both sides being to blame, and this spoiled the contest. Columbiana has a mighty sweet combination, and showed far more teamwork. Mullins was not only off in shooting but had only a semblance of teamwork. Ryan and Older played a great floor game while Ross Wilcoxon unlimbered his scoring arm in the last half and got 14 points in all.

Barbe and Dowd played a great game for Columbiana; Tony Paulsey, mammoth Youngstown player, did not get many shots due to Older's fine guard work.

The Studobakers assumed an early lead and then slowed down, Wellsville coming back and nearly passing the Salem league team. Jupiter Fogg was hot at forward, making 21 points by great shots. Saunders and Phip also were scoring aces last night.

SPENCE CLAIMS MANY VICTORIES BY KAYO ROUTE

Arvin Spence, the short, squat light heavyweight, who is billed to meet Bobo Leonard, of Philadelphia, in the semi-final of the police benefit boxing show next Wednesday in Memorial gym, claims a record of 60 per cent of his fights won by the kayo route.

From the shoulders of this Cleveland scrapper shoot muscular arms which would do credit to a 200-pounder, and when he hits, the recipient of said punches stays hit. He is only 165, but takes them on up to 200 pounds.

Spence can take a lot of punishment, and often does until he is ready to muster the lightning flash which is accompanied by knockout drops. He is a clever and heady fighter, picking his way slowly at first, but lets his mule-like sock out of the bag at the proper moment.

Leonard is known around Philadelphia as the "learned heavy." Like Gene Tunney, Mr. Leonard now and then scans the lines of a book. This means he has a mind which functions, and chances are he is thinking right now how chunky Arvin will look stretched out on the cool canvas.

Bobo socks with a dynamite crash, and more than once an opponent has come to several minutes too late if these terrific swings are unleashed at the same time Spence winds up and lets go, fans will see a little Nicaraguan war or something of the sort.

Mayor Phil Hiddleston speaks a good word for Sergeant Fay, the welter who meets Sailor Sam Carr in the main bout. Two years ago in Buffalo Hiddleston watched Fay get a draw in a hot battle with a Syracuse boxer in the semi-final of a big show.

Since that time Fay has been rising fast, and now goes on in the main bouts. The lad who got his preliminary training in the army is now a full fledged fighter, and should give a pleasing exhibition before fans here.

The police report much interest in the show, and expect to have a full house. Proceeds will go to the uniform fund.

DAMASCUS WINS 43 TO 37 GAME

Behind at the half, an occurrence in many games this year for the Quakers, the Damascus five of the county league made a last half stand and won out at Lisbon Thursday night, 43 to 37.

The county seat outfit could not stop Greg, Damascus star forward, after he got under way and he rolled in 19 points. Oesch and Gilbert also put up a battle for the Quakers.

Score at the half was 24 to 16. Lisbon, and things looked dark for the Goshen passers, but the Bye combination was able to turn the tables. Another victory will clinch the last half pennant for Damascus.

PHILLIES GET GOOD PITCHER BY "FAILURE"

Winter Haven, Fla., March 2.—Present-day ball players are locked upon as pretty shrewd business men. The Phils have one who wasn't, however, and because of that the club has in him a most promising pitcher.

August Walsh was signed last year and was sent to Pittsfield. All he did up there was to lead the Eastern league in the percentage of games won and lost.

Three years ago Walsh, then a coming youngster, was breezing along as a pitcher for Wilkes-Barre when the old soupbone suddenly became null and void. Walsh's arm looked like a dead loss. He saw doctors all over the country, but none could do anything for him. They told him rest was the only thing that would help.

As a result, Walsh, who is married, decided he had to get down to brass tacks and earn some groceries. He went into business at the shore and decided to forget baseball.

But Walsh's business didn't pan out. Then he decided to have another fling at baseball and by that time the rest had done its work. Augie found that the ball would cut up its former pranks for him.

So Walsh was signed by the Phils, and this spring he is one of the most promising young pitchers in camp. The Phils think he is going to be a winner.

ALLIANCE FIGHT CARD SCHEDULED

Al Kinder and Walter O'Keefe, both Alliance boys, will meet in a decision scrap of ten rounds at 145 pounds in the main bout of the Spiegel A. C. of Alliance in the Alliance Elks home Monday night.

Four prelims are carded. They are:

Johnny Plai, Greenville, Pa., vs. Georgie Maier, Cleveland, eight rounds at 145 pounds; Vince Gilmore, Alliance, vs. Jack Ansty, Cleveland, six rounds; Earl Grate, Alliance, vs. Archie Mastirino, Sebring, four rounds; Patsy Mandel, Ravensna, vs. Young Fraidas, Canton, four rounds.

New York—Julie Hoyt, society beauty, who went on the stage, knows no beauty secrets. "Perhaps 10 years from now I'll be a sight," she said, over the radio, "but just the same I go on breaking the rules."

SET WORLD RECORDS ON SAME DAY

These three young swimmers of New York on the same day, but at three different meets, established new world's records for various distances. At the left you see George Kojac, who rang up a high one for the 150-yard backstroke event at New Haven, Conn. In the center is Walter Spence, who broke all marks for the 150-yard medley race in Brooklyn, N. Y., his time being 1:41 1/5. At the right is 14-year-old Eleanor Holm, who was clocked in 4:26 1/5 for the 300-yard medley race for women at a Buffalo meet.

HORNSBY SIGNS AT $40,000 YEAR

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 2.—Rogers Hornsby has signed a three-year contract with the Boston Braves at $40,000 a year, with a special provision for $600 a year extra for acting as captain of the team. Thereby all rumors of Hornsby's being a hold-out are put at an end and at the same time the former Giant second baseman takes rank as holding the largest contract ever offered a player in the National league.

Announcement of the new contract was made by Judge Emil Fuchs following a conference with Hornsby.

As a result of his new contract the rajah will draw down $121,800 for three seasons of play, rating next to Babe Ruth as the highest salaried man in baseball.

"Hornsby and I had no difficulty in reaching an agreement," Judge Fuchs declared. "During his brief stay with the Braves Hornsby has shown a wonderful spirit of co-operation and I wanted him to be satisfied."

Locke May Try Out With The Dodgers

Clearwater, Fla., March 2.—Manager Robinson has invited Roland Locke, famous Nebraska sprinter, to try out for a berth in the Brooklyn outfield. Locke wants to get expert opinion on his ball playing ability if the test will not impair his amateur standing. Locke is a great admirer of Dave Bancroft, Brooklyn shortstop.

SUGGESTS CITY LEAGUE MEET MULLINS QUINT

Referee Would Match His All-City League Stars With Mullins

Referee Raphael Reasbeck of the City basketball league today suggested that the all-city league stars meet the Mullins outfit in a city championship series.

Reasbeck has named a powerful aggregation in his selections for first and second honors in the league. Only one suggestion that of Older at guard on the first team, effects Mullins. Since Older is a Mullins player, either Sartick or Ellsworth, picked at guard on the second team, could be named running mates of Nick Johnson, other first team guard.

The suggestion is reported to be favorably considered by the league, and the question will be put up to Mullins. The latter team has a heavy schedule for the balance of the season, and is expected to take the suggestion under advisement for a few days.

Reasbeck picked Saunders of the Masons and Knowlton of the Electric Furnace as forwards; Springer of the Masons at center, and Johnson and Older guards on the first team.

The second team is made up of DeCraw and Fogg, forwards; Phip, center; Sartick and Ellsworth, guards.

There has never been a city series. The pick-up Ex-Highs beat Mullins during the holidays, but it was not a regular outfit. The City leaguers have just finished a full regular season, and could represent the league as a city title contender.

New West Point Head

Major General William R. Smith from the Philippines, who will have charge at West Point Military Academy. Major General Smith is now on his way east, inspecting several R. O. T. C. units on his way.

eliminated not one man but both last night.

Meanwhile, Brother Tunney is sunning himself in Miami waiting for an opponent for his June fight. Brother Tunney is a patient man and all that but it is hardly credible that today he seriously considers either Heeney or Delaney as better than a bright, young man with perfect table manners and a nice, kind face.

Eleven days hence, they will hold another of these disqualifying rounds between Jack Sharkey and Jimmy Risko but no one looks forward to this with glee or anticipation. It just doesn't seem to be in the deck for one of these things to develop anything except a pain in the neck.

Heeney Tried

Sharkey and Heeney met early in January and were terrible. Pauling and G-dfrey fought, or did something, in Los Angeles a few nights ago and were awful. Delaney and Heeney had it out last night and were terrible or awful or both.

Heeney tried all the way, a fact that probably earned him the "duke." He had nearly 20 pounds in weight on his man and wanted to see just what he could do with it, but Delaney would have no part of this, holding so desperately in close that Heeney pulled him all over the ring in his rage to break loose.

Delaney's holding, however, simply served to make a bad fight look worse. Any good heavyweight could make the fragile Delaney fold up before the end of 15 rounds. The same good man could pop Heeney silly with a fast left. Unfortunately, the last good man seen around these parts happens to be the best there is, i. e., Brother Tunney.

FIGHT RESULTS

At New York—Tom Heeney, New Zealand heavyweight, won decision over Jack Delaney, of Bridgeport, Conn., former light heavyweight champion (15).

Pierre Charles, Belgian heavyweight, knocked out Jack McCann, St. Paul (1).

Jackie Brady, Syracuse, N. Y. welterweight, scored technical knockout over Sammy Vogel, New York (4).

Rasy Boutot, New York heavyweight, scored technical knockout over Pedro Lopez, Wheeling, W. Va. (2).

At Buenos Ayres—Luis Rayo, of Spain, European lightweight champion, won decision over Victorio Venturi, of Italy (2).

HEENEY GIVEN DECISION, BOTH ARE ELIMINATED

That's Way Walsh Sees It As Pertaining To Go With Tunney

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, March 2.—It seems there was a couple of fellows named Pat and Mike and one of them said to the Pullman waiter: "George," said he, "bring me an order of ham and eggs and eliminate the eggs."

And George said, said he: "Boss, we done mislaid our eliminator."

Well, a couple of eggs, or maybe they were hams or both, were well eliminated from Tex Rickard's heavyweight tournament last night at Madison Square Garden as Tom Heeney, the poor but honest prize fighter, outlasted Jack Delaney to win the decision at the end of 15 rounds.

By that time, it really didn't matter who they said was the best man, for the best couldn't be any better than Kipling's worst.

Thought Delaney Had Won

Still, a lot of the mugs were roused from their intense lethargy by the decision. They thought Delaney had won and for some reason, deemed it worth their while to say as much in loud, firm tones. Personally, I disagree with that Pullman waiter.

The "eliminator" was not mislaid. It was in there working so perfectly that it was obvious to the 18,000 odd and assorted mugs just why Mr. Rickard, as seldom at a loss for a word as for a dollar, called this an elimination tournament. He, Mr. Rickard, and it, the tournament.

MOVIES

"BUTTONS"

Jackie Coogan as the hero of a dramatic adventure at sea, comes to the State tonight in "Buttons," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production.

The story tells the fascinating struggle of a waif to go to sea, and his breath-taking adventures, once he accomplishes his ambition, aboard a gigantic ocean liner on which he is the official page boy. His boyish adoration is centered on the captain, who carries his fickle sweetheart on the journey across the sea. How Jackie discovers her disloyalty and circumvents it, bringing disgrace and punishment on himself, makes a thrilling picture with more than its share of humor and some poignant situations that grip the heart.

George Hill, famous director of "Tell It to the Marines" and other masterpieces, wielded the megaphone. Jackie is assisted by a notable cast, which comes nearer to being an all-star cast than most productions can boast. It includes Lars Hanson, Gertrude Olmstead, Roy D'Arcy, Coy Watson, Jr., and others.

"SILVER VALLEY"

Of the unnumbered roles in which Tom Mix has played hundreds of diversified roles, he never has appeared as an aviating cowboy until now. In "Silver Valley," the Fox picture current at the Grand, we thrill at a new Tom Mix in a flying helmet instead of a sombrero.

Dorothy Dwan, his charming leading lady, made her first flight in this picture, and from the scenes it is apparent that she is at home in the air even when the plane isn't exactly on a horizontal flight.

The story concerns a westerner who takes to flying for the thrill of it. How he rescues a girl from a band of ranch thugs, drives the desperadoes from the range and also crashes to terra firma, all go to make a thrilling picture and a most entertaining story. The audience last night thoroughly enjoyed it.

In the supporting cast are Philo McCullough, Jockey Hoefel, Tom Kennedy, Lon Poff, Harry Dunkinson and Clarke Comstock. Ben Stol-

off was the director and he did a creditable piece of work.

Of course, Mix remains a cow-puncher despite his new mount and Tony, the wonder horse, plays his usual remarkable role.

Much favorable comment is heard concerning the elaborate stage setting which was arranged for the two-day program of Finley's Melody band. The stage was attractively arranged at considerable cost. Solo work of the members of the orchestra also pleased.

STYLE EDICTS

London, March 2.—Fashion has decreed longer skirts for evening gowns, and longer hair for the ladies who wear them.

The first of the secrets of the new Spring styles, as created in the salons of London and Paris, are just becoming known. The revelations foreshadow sharp changes in modes for afternoon and evening wear.

The new styles can be divided into groups, the severe, semi-sports clothes for the morning and afternoon, and the very feminine, picturesque ones for the evening.

With the latter styles, shingled heads do not appear to the best advantage, and the women who are fortunate enough to have information concerning the new modes are either letting their hair grow or making preparations to alter their appearance of their heads by means of cunningly-fashioned transformations.

Fashion experts are of the opinion that there is something incongruous about a closely-cropped coiffure emerging from a "creation" of lace and taffeta, and on this point agreement has been reached between dress designers and hair-dressers.

Prominent hair-dressers throughout London are working on charming little postiches which will be ready to greet the first of the really long-skirted models to reach this country from Paris.

The scarf has now become an essential part of the feminine wardrobe.

The latest vogue of this article of dress is a scarf which can be twisted into a hat.

Following the simple method used by the seaside girl when she wraps a silk handkerchief about her head, the scarf is twisted hat-wise about the head, and a brooch is used for holding the folds in position. One end of the scarf is knotted over one ear, while the other is twisted around the neck and then left to hang over one shoulder.

The feminine ear is again to make its appearance, for a new style of head-dressing in which the hair is drawn behind the ears, is becoming very popular.

With this new style, the ear is not shown blatantly, as in the Eton crop, but peeps from a rather delicate background of hair.

The hair can be dressed in this style, whether it is long, bobbed, or shingled. It will be especially popular with the girl who wants her hair to grow long again.

THE GUMPS—A BIRD IN THE HAND

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Building has become more and more a matter of personality homes. That is, homes with definite ideas that fill the needs of the owners. The ideas are as well thought out and planned as possible before the architect is called in to say what cannot and what can be done.

One family which planned an economy house built half the first year and a year later the rest of it. The first was a lower floor having a dining-room, kitchen, pantries, servants' bedroom and bath, all in the latest and most up-to-date convenient arrangement. The second story held two master bedrooms, a delightfully big comfy bathroom and a sewing room with plenty of closets. A fine cellar contained an excellent laundry.

At one end of the studio room a raised platform reached by two wide but very low steps was a fitting place for the grand piano. A large round Chinese window had a low seat under it. Music and instruction rooms were built in and a long built-in bench was back of the piano. At the side of the room a balcony was built, a door from the second-story hall of the first building opening onto it and a cushioned seat running all around inside. Under the balcony doors opened into the main hall that ran to the front door. Just outside the doors were commodious hall closets. Opposite the doors a wide-open fireplace added its charm. At the other end of the room a large studio window let in the north light.

On occasion a real banquet could be set forth in the big room with little trouble. The refectory table in the center was quite large enough and there was a sliding door from the kitchen into the hall to be used on occasions of the sort. This sounds very luxurious for an economy house, but it was really very simple and was built in sections. The rough walls on the lower floor were all painted, the woodwork was oiled. The smooth walls and woodwork on the second floor were all painted.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

SATURDAY, MARCH 3.

Learning is to the studious and riches to the careful.

—Ben Franklin.

Although there are several conflicting testimonies among the planetary positions for this day, yet resolution and persistency should lead to success and substantial return for diligence and careful handling of matters in hand. Real estate, agricultural, mining and machinery contracts may be advisable, but matters of mercantile bargaining should be postponed and money protected. Those whose birthday it is may achieve a successful year by industry and perseverance, but in real estate, mining machinery or agriculture rather than through commercial or financial transactions. A child born on this day should be studious, stable and responsible, but may succeed by plodding rather than sheer cleverness.

Washington—Any rocks who when getting married in Uncle Sam's capital agree that the husband need not support the wife, will be liable to a maximum of five years in the hoosegow, if congress does as desired by Representative William C. Hammer, of North Carolina. His bill so defines companionate marriage.

THEN ALL-BRAN SAVED HIM FROM CONSTIPATION

A message for people who use laxatives

Mr. Skiles wrote us a voluntary testimonial after Kellogg's ALL-BRAN had saved him from dreadful constipation. Read his tribute:

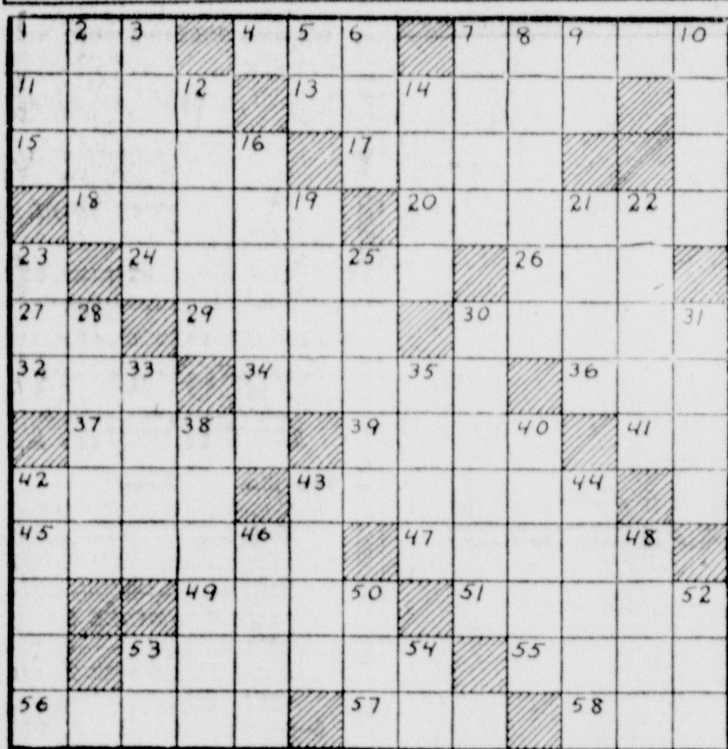

"For years I have been so constipated, I could only get temporary relief. I became discouraged and gave up. When a friend told me to use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, I had read so many testimonials I had no faith. I was of the opinion testimonials were put out by friends. I will not only give you the privilege to use my name, but I will go on the witness stand and testify to my statement. I cannot express words great enough to meet with Kellogg's food." —ARTHUR SKILES, 325 N. Kedzie Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

If constipation is preying upon your health, check it before too late. If you are using habit-forming laxatives, stop it before this harmful practice fastens its grip too tight.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. A 100% bran cereal—delicious with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Use in cooking too. Sold by all grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

GERMANY LIKES AMERICAN CARS

Native Makes Suffer And Industry Is Facing Darkest Year

Berlin, March 2.—With Henry Ford starting a vigorous offensive against the German automobile market and with about 25 to 30 thousand foreign, mostly American cars expected to be imported into this country, Germany automobile makers foresee the darkest year of the German automobile industry in 1928.

If this industry ever survives the foreign invasion, it is said, then but only then will it have proved that the German industry has a right to exist and a right to continue. It is admitted that German automobile manufacturers made grave mistakes in the past and that they are about to suffer for them. One of the most disastrous mistakes is seen in the producers' disregarding the customers' wishes and demands.

It is only recently that the American slogan of "best service to the customer" has been generally adopted by the automobile industry. For years and years the German automobile manufacturers produced a big variety of cars regardless of whether there was a big market for them or not. They sold their cars to the comparatively few rich people that could afford to buy cars and neglected to put out a car for the "man in the street."

Ford's success taught them a lesson and they are now beginning to realize that mass production brings the money. Germany produced 25,000 cars in 1927, of which only 2,500 were exported, whereas the import of foreign cars into Germany amounted to 12,000 cars. With the import of some 30,000 cars expected to flood Germany in 1928 many of the smaller automobile firms will have to close down and even the big producer consider 1928 a serious test for their industry.

SOCIETY AND SPORTS TRAIL STUDY AT YALE

New Haven, Conn., March 2.—Yale students are attaining high marks in their courses, creating new records in scholarship, and devoting much time to literary affairs, but their interest in sports isn't what it was once. Neither are they a whole lot interested in society affairs. Exactly 40 students attended an important indoor track meet this winter, and a gathering of 200 at a hockey game is big.

Yale students aren't particularly keen about faculty receptions and all that. A new staff took charge of Yale Daily News, which recently celebrated its fiftieth birthday, and campaigned for closer relations between faculty and students. President James Rowland Angell noticed the campaign and said:

"For some years I invited the senior class of the college and scientific school to meet with me and discuss significant facts but the attendance was so disappointing that I abandoned the plan. There was a senior reception once which was finally given up because the only seniors who came were the eight or ten men invited to serve as ushers. There were also teas for freshmen abandoned because only a fraction of the class accepted the invitation."

Still, as many as 15 athletic teams have been in action either in town or on other fields of a Saturday afternoon and evening.

"Electricity!---

The Power of the Republic

Says WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE Author and editor Emporia Gazette

"The democracy that really counts has come as a result of industrial and economic forces by giving men and women better wages, shorter hours and more self-respecting conditions of labor. The worker, growing up in these conditions of self-respect, no longer is willing to drudge. Hence the demand for electric power."

SUPPLYING electric light and power to the nation is not merely a business.

It is a public service that forever frees men from the tyranny of excessive burden; that spells the difference between less toil and more comfort; less confinement and more leisure; less poverty and more wealth. It is the measure of human prosperity and happiness.

Every time electrical service is extended, every time there is a new labor-saving device introduced in the home or in the factory, labor is made more useful and productive, the individual is released for those pursuits which make for better government, and civilization is broadened and strengthened.

The production of electric energy in the United States has doubled every five years since Edison invented the electric bulb. There is now generated in this country more electric power than is produced throughout all the rest of the world. If apportioned among all the workers in the U. S., it would give each worker the equivalent of 40 helpers.

Such wide-spread distribution of this vital force has been made possible through the splendid zeal of the electric power companies of this country. It presents unmistakable evidence of the efficiency of the American principle of individual initiative in the development and operation of the electrical facilities of this country. The continuance of this principle is essential to maintain progress.

REVOKE PERMIT OF BUS COMPANY

Columbus, March 2.—Declaring the Minerva-Canton Transit company was guilty of violating the law "in many instances," the State Utilities Commission announced it had issued an order revoking the company's certificate and had prohibited it from operating between Canton and Minerva.

The commission's decree followed an investigation relative to a complaint filed last July by the Canton-East Liverpool Coach company which operates between Canton and East Liverpool, by way of Minerva. The complainant charged that the Minerva-Canton company, in various ways, violated the law and was otherwise guilty of irregularities.

The commission announced that the Minerva-Canton company, among other things, changed equipment without obtaining permission from the commission, failed to pay state taxes on its equipment, as required by law, and illegally permitted operation of some of its equipment off its authorized route.

Today's Fashion By Vera Winston

Attractive Suede-Cloth Coat Has Unusual Fur Trimming.

EXTREMELY smart is this cloud blue suede-cloth coat with deep, luxurious bands of beaver collar, cuffs and hem. Most interesting is the application of long strip of the same material on the important body of the coat, giving an effect that is slenderizing and chic. The elongated cuff extending almost the entire length of the arm, is one of the season's most unusual and attractive novelties. Great care should be taken to have the collar deep and full enough to balance the cuffs, otherwise one's coat would seem all sleeves.

Crippled Badly With Rheumatism

Could Hardly Get Around

"Working in a damp place gave me rheumatism so badly I could hardly get around. My joints and knuckles were swollen badly and every muscle in my body seemed to ache. I tried 'St. Jacob's Oil' and got relief almost instantly. Today, thanks to that wonderful oil, I work eight hours a day in all kinds of weather without a bit of trouble."

Good old "St. Jacob's Oil" certainly does knock the pains and aches of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuritis and Neuralgia. It penetrates directly to the affected parts and draws out all the pain and misery, and it does so in a common practice. One cannot conceive of a law of that kind. Being even considered. Much less being passed. We're ready to furnish complete bath outfits at a moment's notice.

Old and Young Members Tell What's Wrong With Congress

Washington, March 2.—Congress has been the subject of considerable criticism and the butt of numerous jokes.

It has often been belittled because of its verbosity and its cumbersome, bungling legislative machinery.

This question, "what is wrong with congress?" was put today to the two oldest and the two youngest members in the house and senate. They agreed that while congress isn't all that it's cracked up to be in school histories, yet it isn't such a bad place after all.

They replied as follows:

Senator Warren (R), of Wyoming, who has been in the senate since 1897—"I think we would have a better senate if we'd go back to the system of years ago when members were elected by representative bodies of the states through legislatures instead of proceeding through primaries and election by all the people at large."

Rep. Cooper (R), of Wisconsin, who has served 17 terms in the house—"The house is too large. The larger it becomes the weaker it becomes as a legislative body. Because of its size, power is thrown too much in the hands of a few men."

"Another discomforting feature is that there is too much legislation in conference committees—in which six or eight men determine the character of legislation."

Senator LaFollette (R), of Wisconsin, youngest member of the senate—"In my judgment one of the most important changes which would improve the situation in congress would be the passage of the so-called Norris resolution doing away with the participation of lame ducks in legislation, and also providing for the abolition of the short session. The short session results in hasty and ill-conceived legislation and often prevents the passage of necessary legislation. Two sessions of more equal length would afford a complete remedy."

Rep. Combs (D), of Missouri, 28, the baby member of the house—"It is easy to find flaws in any organization, but I believe that both the personnel of congress and its system of procedure are essentially sound. I think the public would be amazed to find out how business-like its methods are in dealing with national affairs."

It has been estimated that the cost of maintaining road patrol district No. 1 in Columbiana county, which includes roads in the western part of the county, with a total mileage of 23.11, will be $10,238.30, according to a detailed statement just filed with the county commissioners by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk. Last year this contract was held by Frank Cox of Kennington.

In patrol district No. 2 including roads in and around Columbiana and the northern part of the county and also in the vicinity of New Waterford, the maintenance cost for the current year has been estimated at $14,572.10, and covering 17.48 miles of road.

All the remaining roads, that is to say the roads in and about the vicinity of Lisbon, Lestonia, Salineville, Wellsville and East Liverpool, which it is proposed to be maintained by the county, and which shows a total in excess of 30 miles, will cost $22,121.45.

60-Year-Old Woman Hiked Around World In 20 Years' Tramp

Plymouth, Eng., March 2.—A 60-year-old woman walker has arrived at Plymouth who has just completed the final lap of a lifetime's wandering around the world. She has been "on tramp" for 20 years.

Miss Gertrude Benham has visited practically every country in the world, and has set foot in many parts of Africa where no white woman has been before.

"Twenty years ago," says Miss Benham, who looks astonishingly well and has a complexion like a young girl's, "I was attracted by the grandeur of the Swiss mountains. That started me off on a quest for beauty in nature and the search has gone on ever since."

"I am a lone wanderer. I have no home in the sense that is generally understood. Yet I am never lonely. My needs are few, and I can afford to go wherever I want to go. On an average I never spend more than $1,250 a year."

Vote to Modernize Two Battleships

Washington, March 2.—Again along an administration naval program, the house naval affairs committee today voted to recommend modernization of the battleships Pennsylvania and Arizona at a cost of $14,800,000. The navy department proposed modernization of six ships at a cost of $34,670,000.

The Andrews bill increasing pay of officers and men on active submarine duty was unanimously reported out. It gives officers a 25 per cent increase and $5 to $30 a month increase for enlisted men. Divers engaged in deep sea salvage work would get extra pay of $10 an hour.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—Mrs. Catharine Fenton, who in her 105th year, has had an airplane ride, says she was just as excited about it as when she had her first sweetheart.

Wonderful changes. In no other line is this fact shown more prominently than in Sanitation. As it relates to the plumbing in the modern home. Compare the present. When even the most modest home must have a sink. And bath and toilet—With a few years back. When it was thought a dangerous thing to bathe too often. And in one city a law was passed prohibiting the taking of baths in the winter months. At the present time when the daily bath is a common practice one cannot conceive of a law of that kind. Being even considered. Much less being passed. We're ready to furnish complete bath outfits at a moment's notice.

Sunday School Champ

Here's a man who hasn't missed Sunday School or been late in 1,640 consecutive weeks. He is S. Prue Mann of Atlanta, Ga., the world's champion Sunday School pupil, and a member of the Georgia Avenue Presbyterian Church. He is shown wearing the 26 medals he has won for his perfect record. Bread of Guetersloh Boosted by Bismarck Guetersloh was a town of some 1,500 inhabitants some years ago, when one day during the maneuvers a young lieutenant took up his quarters there. This lieutenant came from Pomerania, where they also make black bread of fine quality, but he liked the peculiar flavor of the Westphalia article. His name was Bismarck.

In the year 1870 Bismarck was again traveling through Guetersloh, this time as chancellor. King William was with him and when the train stopped the prime minister called out loudly to the crowd that had come to meet them:

"Is there anyone who can get us some pumpernickel with butter?"

As a number of reporters were present when this query was made, the fortune of the Guetersloh black bread was made and it speedily became the fashion all over Germany. The craze for Westphalian pumpernickel spread far and wide, continuing furthered by the bakers who now baked for export only small one-pound loaves, for the purpose of making it look "more like a delicatessen," as they say.

The bakers of Guetersloh were worldly wise, for from the same kneading troughs there go into the oven first the huge loaves (certain of these going to the farmhouses) often weigh half a hundredweight) and then, shaped of what was left, the tiny loaves that are wrapped in paper and exported to all parts of the world to be sold as a delicatessen.

Gorilla Fussy About His Sleeping Place

The main apparent preoccupation of the male gorilla is fighting for the continued possession of his wives. As the family party moves along through the forest, rarely sleeping twice in the same spot, there is every night the business of making beds. For the gorilla has at least this in common with his human cousins that he likes and demands a comfortable sleeping place and, what is more, he prefers to make his sleeping arrangements well before darkness falls.

For this purpose paterfamilias bends down saplings and covers them with leafy branches, while the member of his harem, who are sent up neighboring trees, make each her own bed in a suitable fork by breaking off branches within her reach. Their beds are never very high up—never too high for the old man to be able to keep his eye on them. You may find chimpanzees nesting in the tree-tops, but never gorillas.

Once I had a chance of studying this proceeding. I made my camp close to two parties of gorillas. My own bed was made in five minutes, but the gorillas took twenty minutes to finish theirs to their liking, and probably were more comfortable than I. They are certainly very fastidious in this matter. Even when they remain in the same spot for a few days they make fresh beds every night, sometimes even in the same trees as the night before, but in other forks.—Dr. N. A. Dyce Sharp in the Continental Edition of the London Daily Mail.

STATE WILL LET ROAD CONTRACTS

Sections of Carrollton-Salineville Road To Be Included

In the road letting by the State Highway department at Columbus today, three sections of the Carrollton-Salineville road from Carrollton to Mechanicstown will be up for bids. The estimated cost has been placed at $142,817.

The bids for this work call for grading and construction of drainage structures, including four large bridges over a 23-foot span, and a road in 6.05 miles proposed to be improved.

This road is a part of the Columbus-East Liverpool inter-county highway.

It is also announced that only four miles of this road remain to be surfaced, extending from Riley's church about two miles east of Salineville to Mechanicstown. This last four miles will be up for letting.

by the state highway department later this year.

Several sections of the East Liverpool-Youngstown road are also up for letting at Columbus today. Grading on the entire distance of this road has been finished and the bids to be opened today will be for surfacing. It is very probable that the contract will be awarded next week for a concrete top, this to match with the sections of this road already completed.

King Will Rescue Auld Haunted Kirk

London, March 2.—The "Auld Haunted Kirk" at Alloway, Ayrshire, the centuries-old church which formed the background of Robert Burns' famous poem "Tam O'Shanter," is soon to be rescued from its state of dilapidation, and made an ancient monument under the protection of the state.

Through the efforts of Capt. E. P. Carson, formerly of Chicago, an American antiquarian who has spent many years in England, the king decided to commission the Office of Works to look into the matter, and make all arrangements necessary so that the ancient structure may not be left to the ravages of time.

OUT TO WIN ILLINOIS NOMINATION

No time to go out and lunch, so Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, widow of Senator Medill McCormick, eats in her office as she opens her campaign in Springfield, Ill., for the Republican nomination for representative-at-large.

New York—The first commandment for women in politics is don't talk too much. That habit is the first sin of women in politics, says Mrs. Worthington Scrantom, vice chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican state committee.

70% of the day's work is crowded into 4 hours!

Yet morning listlessness is a frequent handicap, say school and business heads

School authorities declare children's progress is too often delayed by "draggy" mornings and urge that more attention be paid to breakfasts

Today there is an entirely new understanding of how important a part is played in school or business progress by the kind of breakfast you eat.

In schools, they put the heaviest strain on children in the forenoon. 70% of the hard studies are crowded into the morning session, national investigations prove. And heads of big industrial organizations say the heavy load in the working world falls in the same period.

Educators, business heads and leading editors are therefore urging better preparation for these strenuous hours. They say that "draggy" mornings, whether in school-room or office, are a serious handicap that should be prevented by thoughtful attention to balanced breakfasts.

For real, sustaining nourishment, food experts agree that oatmeal has unique values. They call it the best balanced of the cereals; because it supplies not only energy—but tissue-building material, vitamins and minerals! And bran in its most appetizing form!

Your own sense of taste will show you what a difference there is in oatmeal flavor. If you have never tasted Quick Mother's Oats you will notice instantly its rich, satisfying quality. "This tastes better, somehow," the children will exclaim. And like thousands of others, you will never again be satisfied with any less-carefully-milled oats.

Quick Mother's Oats is made from the cream of the oat crop, milled by skillful methods developed through 50 years of experience. And now you can get it in two forms: the regular kind, and Quick Mother's Oats which cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes. Now this hot, nourishing breakfast can be prepared faster than toast!

Start tomorrow to see how this breakfast "stands by" you through the whole morning.

Business pressure makes no allowances for morning listlessness

When the camera got on the job, Thure de Phulstrup of New York lost his job. You see, he used to photograph big news events by flashes. Wilson Nurse Weds

Ruth Powderly of Washington, D. C., formerly a nurse in the Navy and called upon to minister to Presidents Harding and Wilson during their illnesses, has become the bride of Commander Essey B. Elm of the Medical Corps of the Navy.

Alexander Pope was only 20 years old when he wrote "An Essay on Criticism," in which occur at least two phrases which are familiar the world over: "Fools rush in where angels fear to tread," and "A little learning is a dangerous thing."

English Women Now Favor Cigarettes To Purchases of Candy

London, March 2.—Shingle trims and smoking have so much affected the consumption of candy in Britain that the biggest candy manufacturing firms are making big cuts in prices.

Sir Harold Mackintosh, head of the famous Mackintosh candy manufacturing firm, says: "The confectionery trade has been severely hit recently by the modern trend of fashion."

"The day has gone by when women would stay indoors all afternoon and evening and consume large quantities of candy. Today they think about their figures and ration themselves with perhaps one or two pieces, followed by a drink of lemon water to keep them slim."

"The increase of smoking among women has also meant that fewer sweets are eaten. Again, the vast sums spent on hairdressing and on stockings by the modern miss has meant that less money is available for candy. We have to meet this competition and revise prices accordingly."

Collapsible Opera Hat Back In Vogue

London, March 2.—Convincing proof that the collapsible opera hat is returning into its own as a correct headpiece for full dress, was afforded here recently when the Prince of Wales was seen at a theater this attire.

For some time smart men have refused to wear anything else with evening dress save the shining silk hat, which, flung about in cloak rooms and kicked while reposing under the seat at a play, very soon ceases to shine.

Hat makers are reported to be preparing for a boom in the old-fashioned opera hat as a result of the prince's example.

ARE YOU TOXIC?

A Gripping of the Heart

A sudden gripping of the heart, then a feeling that it has stopped completely—that's a serious sign. Many people today suffer heart trouble as a result of system poisoning. It comes from our abnormal living habits which put too great a strain upon the "purification" organ, the liver. The liver becoming sluggish and congested fails to cleanse the blood of poisons formed in food and drink. The whole system then becomes toxic, with stomach, kidneys, heart and blood vessels affected. The liver, especially at middle life, needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as physicians today know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a great natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to health and vitality. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. They cost less than 2¢ each at good druggists, and one or two days' use will prove itself. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol.

Black Crepe Is Serviceable and Stylish.

THERE is no greater comfort nor convenience than a black street dress without which no wardrobe is really complete. Every woman needs a dress that is easy to slip into, is serviceable and stylish at the same time.

The above dress meets with all of these requirements. It is made of heavy black crepe—the kind that simply never wears out—and is trimmed with fine braid, which loops and circles in attractive lines. The fish-colored georgette collar and vestie lighten its somberness and provide a flattering soft effect.

Radio Loud Speaker Heard Four Miles

London, March 2—A new radio loud speaker, described as having greater volume than that which was used to hurl music across the Hudson River from New York to New Jersey, has made its appearance here.

The speaker is claimed by its patentees to have a range of more than four miles. When running at full power in the office of its makers, listeners had to put cotton in their ears to escape from being deafened.
